Thoughts From Our Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today we celebrate another important feast, the Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. The body of Christ brings us together daily as our community. This feast is also known as the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, which translated from Latin means "Body of Christ."

This solemnity originated in France during the mid-thirteenth century and was extended to the whole Church by Pope Urban IV in 1264. The primary purpose of this feast is to focus our attention on two manifestations of the Body of Christ: the Holy Eucharist and the Church. The opening prayer at Mass calls our attention to Jesus' suffering and death and our worship of Him, especially in the Eucharist.

At every Mass our attention is called to the Eucharist and the Real Presence of Christ in it. The secondary focus of this feast is upon the Body of Christ as it is present in the Church. The Church is called the Body of Christ because of the intimate communion which Jesus shares with his disciples. He expresses this in the Gospels by using the metaphor of a body in which He is the head. This image helps keep in focus both the unity and the diversity of the Church.

The Feast of Corpus Christi is sometimes used as an opportunity for public Eucharistic processions which serve as a sign of common faith and adoration. Our worship of Jesus in His Body and Blood calls us to offer to God our Father a pledge of undivided love and an offering of ourselves to the service of others.

It is important to note that the Mass not only provides us with the opportunity of offering the sacrificial gift of Jesus to God but also the opportunity to offer the gift of ourselves, our obedience, and our love to God, together with the perfect gift which Jesus offers. All of us want to offer to God the gift of ourselves as a suitable and beautiful gift in return for all He has given us. All of us, deep down, I think, desire to worship and thank God, and to make atonement for our sins in a worthy and acceptable manner. Yet, we may feel that we don't have a suitable or worthy gift to return to God, especially in regard to the gift of ourselves, sinful creatures that we are. That's why God has provided us with the sacrificial gift of Jesus, with His holiness and perfect love. By itself, our gift to God seems to count for little; but when we offer ourselves to God in and through and with Jesus, our gift and sacrifice becomes truly pleasing and acceptable.

May God bless you always.

Rev. George O. Omwando

Trust in Jesus

Today's feast celebrates another central mystery of our faith—the mystery of the Eucharist. Like the mystery of the Trinity, the real presence of the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist can never be fully understood, but can only be believed. Just as the Israelites in the desert were invited to put their trust in God's word to them, we are invited to trust wholly in the word of Jesus.

In today's Gospel Jesus promises to give us a share in his very own flesh and blood, and a share in eternal life besides. We are called to take him at his word and open our hearts to receive true nourishment and life from our participation in the Eucharist.

JUNE 25, 2017 - 12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14-16

The events in today's reading take place as the Israelites are camped on the shore of the Jordan River ready to enter the Promise Land. In this farewell speech, Moses makes it clear that when they settle in their new land they must never forget all the wonderful things God did for them during their forty years in the desert.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 10: 16-17

The Jewish people believed that when they sacrificed an animal to God and then ate a portion of the sacrifice themselves, they were in communion with God to whom they had given the other portion. Applying this to the Eucharist, Paul reminds us that when we receive Holy Communion, we become one with the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the LORD.

—Deuteronomy 8:3b

We have not yet realized that the offspring lost are not the enemy's, nor our neighbor's, but our own. And it is not a loss of inert, amorphous tissue, but of a growing being unique in history."

June HIV Awareness Days

National HIV Testing Day is June 27. There are an estimated 50,000 new HIV infections in the U.S. every year. Some 20 to 25% of those persons living with HIV/AIDS DO NOT KNOW that they are infected with the virus and could be spreading it to others. The only way to know if you have the virus is to be tested. This national day of testing is an opportunity for people nationwide to learn their HIV status.

Know your status...get tested...and encourage others to be tested! Free and confidential or anonymous testing is available in a community near you. For more information, please call (312) 948-6500 or go to www.hivaidservicesministry.org. Please pray for those living with HIV/AIDS and those affected by it.

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, Corpus Christi.

On this day, we observe, in a special way, the miraculous gift of the Eucharist, the transubstantiation of ordinary bread and wine into the Divine flesh and blood of Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Our journey of faith is strengthened and sustained, and we are united with the Lord—not just metaphorically, but physically, deeply, personally. The Eucharist, this Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, is the “great secret”—the greatest reason of all to be alive, to be present, to be called, to be Catholic: Jesus present to us in His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity.

Thank you!! Rice Bowl

Catholic Relief Services would like to thank the generosity of the St. Catherine of Siena-St. Lucy community. The collected funds will go toward helping to promote the mission of CRS in the greater world.

We collected $ 695.28.

Unless it extends the circle of its compassion to all living things, humanity will not itself find peace.

—Michael Nagler

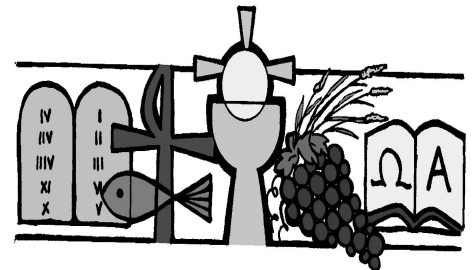

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, “This is my body which is [broken] for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me”

—(1 Corinthians 11:23-25).

Prayer for the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

O Lord Jesus Christ, you have given us your precious Body and Blood to be our meat and drink, grant that through frequent reception of you in the Holy Eucharist, I may be strengthened in mind and body to do your holy will.

Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, have mercy on us.
Amen

Corpus Christi

Treasures from our Tradition

At the heart of today’s solemnity is a eucharistic procession, held in many parishes, that calls to mind the procession of Holy Thursday, yet has a purpose different from the somber adoration in the night watch. In the late Middle Ages, a procession through the city with the Blessed Sacrament was an occasion of heartfelt joy and great emotion. In a time when people seldom approached the altar to receive Holy Communion, the procession through the streets, past homes and workplaces, was a vibrant reminder that Christ was with them as a dear companion and guide.

Every year on this day, a joyful procession winds through the streets of Rome from the Lateran cathedral. A few years ago, Pope John Paul II, deeply moved at the sight of the throng accompanying the sacred host, said that we ought to feel profoundly united with the faithful everywhere in the world at such a moment. “Before our mind’s eye all the Churches of the world, from East to West, from North to South, are present.” Originally this feast was on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday, but after the calendar reform of 1970, its title was expanded from “Corpus Christi” to “The Body and Blood of Christ” and in the United States it was moved to the Sunday after Trinity Sunday. Even though Easter season ended two weeks ago, this beautiful feast is aglow with Easter light.
