Thoughts from parishioner Carolyn Kiolbasa

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Father George has decided to share his weekly corner with members of the multiple parish ministries as a way to encourage all of us to know each other better. The PPC or Parish Pastoral Council is the first group to share ourselves with you.

I often think of the Thomas Wolfe book "You Can't Go Home Again", when I sit in the pews of SCSL. I was raised in this parish, attended St. Catherine's school for 3 years and received all of my sacraments but baptism here. I married my wonderful husband Ken, here at SCSL 38 years ago. As we began our family which included a son and three daughters, we were not able to live in Oak Park. We belonged to parishes in the communities where we lived. We all volunteered and stayed active in the church, but something was missing. We were all feeling disconnected with our very well attended but rather austere church. Something told me to "Go home." We came back to SCSL about seven years ago. Both of our daughters loved the church and immediately felt at home. The warm smiles and friendly introductions that are the hallmark of this beautiful community embraced us all. It is hard not to become involved in ministries here at SCSL. You are genuinely welcomed and needed. When I spend any time with fellow parishioners here, I always feels that I should be doing more, because everyone is so joyfully committed to the parish.

Volunteering here at SCSL has always given more back to me than I can ever give. I am a nurse and have tried to use my profession to help here. I helped to run our health fairs with an energized group of parishioners. It was so humbling to see what seemed like the entire parish community working the day of the fairs. It was a wonderful way to get to know so many members. We have an AED on the wall in church and I have taught CPR classes so that there are members who know how to use the equipment. I think all of us pray that we will never have the opportunity, but at least we're ready. I have been a PPC member for a little over two years. I have enjoyed gaining a broader insight into the parish through the PPC, and sharing a layperson's views with Father. For a little over a year I have been a cantor and sing with the choir. The choir members and directors are a kind and generous group. The acoustics in SCSL and the magnificent organ help the music truly touch my soul.

Today's readings are about being people being called by the Lord. What is your gift that you can share with our community? Our physical church is the house that we worship in. It becomes our home by sharing ourselves and our talents with each other. I am so blessed that I could come home again.

1st & 2nd Readings for the Upcoming Sunday are offered. Their sole purpose is to help us all of us "receive" and "hear" the word of God.

JANUARY 21, 2018 – 3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Jonah 3:1-5, 10

The Book of Jonah is only two pages long and tells a parable about a man called by God to preach repentance to the pagan city of Nineveh. Jonah's first response was to sail as fast as he could in the other direction. After his adventures with a large fish, God called him a second time. Today's passage picks up from there.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:29-31

In this section of the first letter to the Corinthians, Paul responds to written questions they had sent to him. Some questions had to do with how we, who believe in the next life, should relate to the things of this life. Paul expected that Jesus would return in glory soon, so he gives some advice which we hear in this reading.

Bible Study - Tuesdays 9:30 AM

Religious Education

Hope you had a Happy start for the New Year.

Please update your Calendars as these are the official dates for January 2018.

Stewardship 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, ‘What are you looking for?’ — John 1:38

What are you looking for? Are you wasting your time looking for the material comforts of the world? Or, is your heart longing for something deeper that can only be found by spending time with God? Take time, each day, in silence and ask the Lord what it is that He wants you to do.

Give Central allows our parish to provide its parishioners a safe and convenient way to make regular, automatic electronic contributions and can also be used for special events and other collections.

We understand that most transactions today are done electronically. We want to provide you with that same convenient option at church. You can go directly to our website: www.stcatherinestlucy.org to be able to find the link to GiveCentral

Please Make Your Gift to the 2018 Annual Catholic Appeal “Come, Follow Me”

During the last week, many parish families received a letter from Cardinal Cupich requesting your participation by making a pledge to the 2018 Annual Catholic Appeal.

We ask that you respond as generously as possible. The Appeal supports both Parish and Archdiocesan ministries and services. The Appeal funds services that are of great help to ministries here in our Parish.

This year, the theme of the Appeal is “Come, Follow Me.” We have all received God’s love. By financially supporting the ministries and services funded by the ACA, we help to extend God’s love to many, many others.

Challenge Yourself

Continue to be a sign of God’s mercy in this world by actively being like the Good Samaritan: feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, sheltering the homeless, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, burying the dead, and/or giving alms to the poor.

Be committed to being Christ for others in your world, by helping your neighbors with their emotional and spiritual needs. Using your particular gifts, find ways to instruct the unknowing, counsel the doubtful, admonish sinners, bear wrongs patiently, forgive offenses, console the afflicted, and/or pray for the living and the dead.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you.

WEEK of PRAYER

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

for CHRISTIAN UNITY

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity January 18-25, 2018

Early in each new year, the Church enters into the “Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.”

This year’s observance, January 18-25, is meaningful on account of the October 31 reaffirmation of the covenant between the Metropolitan Chicago Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and the Archdiocese of Chicago. It included a commitment to work together to diminish the violence that afflicts our communities. In this effort, praying together is essential.

Resources for Catholic parishes and Christian congregations to pray for unity together can be found at www.geii.org/week\_of\_prayer\_for\_christian\_unity.

To learn more about prayer services for unity taking place in and around Chicago during this week, visit www.archchicago.org/eia.

The chains of grace are so powerful, and yet so sweet, that though they attract our heart, they do not shackle our freedoms.

Treasures From Our Tradition

“Ordinary Time” began for us this week. On the old calendar, the feast of the Presentation, still more than two weeks away, was the last day of the Christmas season. Sadly, Bethlehem is hardly a place of peace on earth these days. The ancient Christian community has been largely uprooted by political strife. The Church of the Nativity stands (barely) in remarkable disrepair and disorder in Manger Square. The roof is crumbling, the major doorways are blocked, the wiring is faulty, and the worship life is disrupted by quarrels among Eastern Christians.

The church was founded by the Emperor Constantine in 325, destroyed in a Samaritan revolt in 539, and rebuilt by the Emperor Justinian. When the area came under Muslim control in 638, the holiness of the church was respected, and in return Christians allowed Muslims to pray in the south aisle, a right still upheld. Earlier in that century, invading Persians were ordered to destroy all churches, but when they saw the magi carved over the doorway of the Church of the Nativity, they spared it out of respect for their ancestors who bore gold, frankincense, and myrrh to the same city. The Crusaders restored and redecored the church by the twelfth century, and it is their plan that survives. Down a few stone steps is a stone grotto with a silver star marking the place of Christ's birth: when the star was stolen in 1847 it triggered an international crisis that exploded into the Crimean War.

Since 1852, the church has been shared by the Roman Catholic, Greek Orthodox, and Armenian Churches. The Greeks are in charge of the grotto, but don't enjoy the best of friendships with the Armenians. Catholics have the care of the Chapel of the Manger, and avoid the squabbles by a separate entrance to the Franciscan monastery church of St. Catherine. Pray for peace in Bethlehem!
