Thoughts from parishioner Mary Jane O'Brien

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Where to begin... I've been a member of St Catherine's of Siena for about 12 years now – is that possible? When I moved to Oak Park in 2003, I was a church hopper. You know what I mean. I had Mass times for several local Catholic parishes taped to the inside of one of my kitchen cabinets and attended regularly - but mostly based upon which service fit my schedule that weekend. It's not very conducive to connecting with fellow parishioners. Then some friends of mine invited me to attend St Catherine's with them. It may sound hokey but I really felt a sense of community and belonging right from the start. In spite of the fact that many people had been members for decades, everyone seemed open and keen on inviting newcomers to worship and share their faith with them.

People are devoted to each other and the faith family at St Catherine's and I knew I wanted to do more. I had been a Minister of Care for many years at my prior parish out of a sense of gratitude to those who had brought Communion to my parents when they were homebound. However, the sense of loss I felt upon the death of people I had grown attached to was difficult. What could I do instead?

Since, I knew I'd be at Mass anyway, for me it seemed an easy thing to become a lector. Schedules are set on a rotation and other lectors are very willing to help each other out when conflicts arise – someone's out of town, etc.

About five years ago, I was invited to consider joining the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC). There are so many demands on our time today and my initial reaction was panic. How would I fit this in? The thing is, I do believe that it's important to support the people and causes you love and usually things don't take as much time as you think they will.

In today's Gospel, Mark recounts how Jesus invited Simon and his brother Andrew, and James and his brother John to follow Him - and they did. There's something deeply personal about being invited to take part in something that matters and I am reminded constantly of how blessed we are to be a part of a community made up of such generous people. We all have different gifts and responsibilities but, if you're at a stage in your life where you can, this is me, inviting you.

God bless!

Mary Jane O'Brien

The Demands of Discipleship

Today we encounter readings that already have a Lenten feel about them. Nineveh undergoes a forty-day fast, the psalmist reminds us that God alone can show sinners the way, Paul shows us how fleeting the things and events of this world are, and Jesus cries out "Repent!" before he calls his new followers. "Come after me," Jesus says, but if we are to truly live out the commands and demands of our discipleship through baptism, we must first know our need for conversion, our repentance, our need to believe in the gospel fully. Today's Gospel opens with the stark reminder of what befell John the Baptist for completely living out his vocation as the herald of Christ and the gospel: he was arrested, imprisoned, and martyred. Though few of us will experience consequences that extreme, we must all be ready to risk some sort of rejection as, heeding the call of Jesus, we live out the kingdom of God at hand, repent of our sins, and believe in the good news of salvation.

500 Club Certificates

IT'S ALMOST TIME FOR THE NEXT $500 DRAWING!

On Sunday February 11th the 500 Club prize will be $500 instead of $25. Have you got the lucky certificate number? Certificates are $25 each and are included in every weekly drawing through October 21st, 2018 even if they have already been winners! The prize each week is $25 except for the three weeks when the prize is $500. If we sell all 500 certificates, there will be a 4th drawing for $500. Purchase forms are available in the back of church and at the rectory. Some of the proceeds from this year's 500 Club will be used for window repair in the rectory; the rest goes into the general operating fund of the parish. This is a fun way to support the parish and it is open to everyone, not just members of our parish community. Please pass the word. Thank you!!!

JANUARY 28, 2018 – 4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Deuteronomy 18: 15-20

The events in today's reading take place as the Israelites are camped on the shore of the Jordan River ready to enter the Promised Land. Moses is near death and is giving final instructions. He promises that after his death, God will still be with them through another prophet. Both Jewish and Christian readers have seen this as referring to the future Messiah.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35

In this section of the first letter to the Corinthians, Paul is responding to their question about whether it is better to remain single or become married. Paul's belief was that when you became Christian, you should not take on a new state in life since he expected Jesus would return in glory very soon.

for CHRISTIAN UNITY

Please Make Your Gift to the 2018 Annual Catholic Appeal "Come, Follow Me"

During the last week, many parish families received a letter from Cardinal Cupich requesting your participation by making a pledge to the 2018 Annual Catholic Appeal.

We ask that you respond as generously as possible. The Appeal supports both Parish and Archdiocesan ministries and services. The Appeal funds services that are of great help to ministries here in our Parish.

This year, the theme of the Appeal is "Come, Follow Me." We have all received God's love. By financially supporting the ministries and services funded by the ACA, we help to extend God's love to many, many others.

Stewardship

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." —Mark 1:17

Jesus' call to "Follow me" is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances, not when we think are "ready" or have everything in order. Good stewardship of our God-given gifts means that things aren't always going to go according to our schedule and that God has a much better plan in store for each of us.
