Thoughts From our Pastor Rev. George O. Omwando

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The context of today's first reading follows immediately after the conversion of Saul. Saul of Tarsus, a Pharisee in Jerusalem after the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus Christ, swore to wipe out the new the Christian Church, called "The Way." He got letters from the high priest, authorizing him to arrest any followers of Jesus in the city of Damascus. On the Damascus Road, Saul and his companions were struck down by a blinding light, brighter than the noonday sun. Saul heard a voice say to him, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" (Acts 9:4, NIV) When Saul asked who was speaking to him, the voice replied, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do." (Acts 9:5-6, NIV) The men with Saul heard the sound but did not see the vision of the risen Christ. Saul was blinded and the men led him by the hand into Damascus to a man named Judas. For three days, Saul was blind and did not eat or drink anything. Meanwhile, Jesus appeared in a vision to a disciple in Damascus named Ananias and instructed him to go to Saul. Ananias was afraid at first because he knew Saul's reputation as a merciless persecutor of the Church. Jesus repeated his command to Ananias, explaining to him that Saul was his chosen instrument to deliver the Gospel to the Gentiles, their kings, and the people of Israel. So Ananias found Saul at Judas' house, praying for help. Ananias laid his hands on Saul, telling him that Jesus had sent him to restore his sight and that Saul might be filled with the Holy Spirit. We are told that something like scales fell from Saul's eyes and he began to see again. Saul arose and was baptized into the Christian faith. He ate, regained his strength, and stayed with the Damascus disciples for three days. After his conversion, Saul changed his name to Paul.

Brothers and sisters in Christ, Saul/Paul went from one extreme end to another, from persecuting the Christians to the preaching of the Good News of the risen Lord. The conversion of Paul shows that Jesus himself wanted the Gospel to go to the Gentiles and that it was no human being's idea. That would quash any argument from the early Jewish Christians that the Gospel was only for the Jews. As baptized Christians, we need to follow the example of the converted Paul as there are so many brothers and sisters who are out there and have no one to bring them the Good News of Jesus Christ. We are the ones to bring the message of Christ. We should never be afraid to do so, and that is our mission: to bring Christ to the world.

Finally, I will like to thank our Celebration and Praise Choirs in conjunction with Saint Edmund's choir, for singing beautifully at last Sunday's concert. If you did not have chance to come to the concert, you can still view the recorded video on my Facebook page (George Omwando). Many are suggesting that we should do this more often.

May God bless you all.

Fr. George

Living Branches

The Gospel and second reading for this Fifth Sunday of Easter emphasize the need for us to remain in Christ, and he in us. This shared life finds expression in the image of the one vine and many branches. We become living branches of the vine, members of the Body of Christ through baptism, Eucharist, and confirmation, sacraments of sharing God's own life. The First Letter of John describes the fruit of this vine as active love of neighbor: "And his commandment is this: we should believe . . . and love one another" (1 John 3:23).

Our first reading from Acts shows us an example of someone who shares in Christ's life in the person of Saint Paul. Paul's fearless witness, even at the risk of his life, is proof to everyone that the risen Lord's Spirit truly fills him with life and is bearing fruit in him.

1st & 2nd Readings for the Upcoming Sunday are offered. Their sole purpose is to help us all of us "receive" and "hear" the word of God.

MAY 6, 2018 –
SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48

Peter was originally skeptical about preaching the Gospel to non-Jews. Then one day, the Holy Spirit summoned him to preach to the pagan army officer Cornelius and his household. The result, as we shall see, is the first recorded conversion of Gentiles to Christianity.

Second Reading: 1 John 4:7-10

The tradition of the apostle John's teachings is expressed in what is called the first letter of John. There is a legend that John in his old age would simply repeat over and over to his people. "Love one another." Today's passage from that letter particularly illustrates this story.

Grateful

Last Sunday's wonderful Gala Concert was such a pleasure and an oasis of joy. It was very well organized by Gail, our Music Director. The choirs of both parishes sang exceptionally well. Thank you to all that came and participated. We made $1,141 in donations!!

Catholic Charities Collection on Mother's Day

As a senior citizen, Antonia does not have much income left after paying for rent, medications, and daily supplies. She relies on the Catholic Charities Senior Food Nutrition Program for all of her meals. Last year 145,547 food packages were delivered to low-income seniors in Cook and Lake counties. Without the food they receive from us, they would have to choose between a healthy diet and paying for medication and other necessities.

Please give to Catholic Charities on Mother's Day to help families overcome enormous obstacles. Learn more at: www.catholiccharities.net.

Pro-Life Why Does Human Life Matter?

Society clearly operates on the premise that there is something special, unique and noble in being human. Indeed, we all seem to have an innate conviction that life does matter.

If you think about it, this is surprising for those who do not believe in God and believe that we are all just random accidents, whose life is not a result of thought or design, but rather of blind chance. Although the secular, humanist view has no answer for why human life matters and is unable to explain why life matters, atheists and agnostics nevertheless live their lives on the assumption that it does and that there is a reason for their being. This is surprising because one cannot have it both ways. Either God made us and assigned a special value to us, or God did not make us and human life would appear to be both worthless and meaningless.

Conversely, Christians can easily explain why life matters. We know that although humans, in terms of physical make-up, are roughly 95% identical to Chimpanzees, we are spiritually superior, because of the simple fact that God made us in His image. As a result, the value of one human soul transcends the value of the material universe. Indeed, we believe that one human soul is more valuable than all the great masterpieces, all the jewels and all the precious metals the world has ever known.

This is why we place a unique value upon all human life. This is why the humanity of every unborn child qualifies that child for love and protection. This is why ever single aborted baby is a terrible tragedy.
