From Rev. George O. Omwando, Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Sin runs rampant in society-daily headlines and overflowing prisons bear dramatic witness to that fact. With child abuse, pornography, serial killings, terrorism, anarchy, and ruthless dictatorship, the world seems to be filled to overflowing with violence, hatred, and corruption. Reading and hearing about these tragedies-perhaps even experiencing them-we begin to understand the necessity of God's judgement. We may even find ourselves wishing for vengeance by any means upon violent perpetrators. Surely, they are beyond redemption. But suppose that in the midst of such thoughts, God told you to take gospel to the worst of the offenders-how would you respond?

Jonah was given a task. Assyria-a great but evil empire-was Israel's most dreaded enemy. The Assyrians flaunted their power before God and the world through numerous acts of cruelty. So when Jonah heard God tell him to go to Assyria and call the people to repentance, he ran in the opposite direction. The Assyrians are a people who have lived in the Middle East and since ancient times and today can be found all over the world. The book of Jonah tells the story of this prophet's flight and how God stopped him and turned around. Disobedience God tells Jonah to go to Nineveh. Jonah did exactly the opposite of what God said to do. Jonah did not want God to forgive Nineveh, for Nineveh was an enemy to Israel. Jonah knew something about God's grace and figured He would forgive Nineveh if they repented. Jonah didn't want to do what God said to do - so he didn't, and he paid the price. Jonah cared more about feeling good than about obeying God. The danger in this is that what feels good and what is good is often different. You know the difference between right and wrong - between good and bad. While wrong and bad might feel good for a moment they lead to a lifetime of consequences. Sin might feel good for a moment but ask Jonah and he would tell you that "Sin always takes you farther than you want to go, keeps you longer than you want to stay, and costs you more than you want to pay. The scripture says the "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." Jonah disregarded the spiritual war that was raging around him. Satan had a plan for Nineveh (the thief comes but to kill, steal, and destroy). God had a plan for Nineveh (Ch. 3:5 "Then the people of Nineveh believed in God; and they called a fast and put on sackcloth from the greatest to the least of them.") What Jonah failed to realize was that he had the opportunity to be the servant of God or the servant of the enemy, but he was going to be one or the other.

Folks you cannot live your life with no regard for spiritual matters - they are life. Jonah knew that God would change Nineveh and he didn't want Nineveh changed. He wanted them destroyed. We get into major problems when we think we know better than God what should be done. Jonah's story is a profound illustration of God's mercy and grace. No one deserved God's favor less than the people of Nineveh, Assyria's capital. Jonah knew this. But he knew that God will forgive and bless them if they would turn from their sin and worship him.

Finally, brothers and sisters in Christ, we are approaching closer to our Annual Catholic Appeal and I wish to request you to pray for the success of this appeal. God bless you.

— Fr. George

A New Day Dawns

Today we hear how Jonah sent by God to warn the people, storms through the streets of Nineveh, scaring the citizens out of their wits. And it works! God has a change of heart, seeing “by their actions” how the people turn from evil (Jonah 3:10). A new day dawns.

Next we hear Paul telling the Corinthians, “The world in its present form is passing away” (1 Corinthians 7:31). He calls for a change of heart. Stopping short of telling them to stop carrying out their everyday activities, he urges them—rather mysteriously—to live “as though” they aren’t doing the things they are doing. A new day has dawned.

Finally, Jesus stands on the shore and cries, “The kingdom of God is at hand!” (Mark 1:14). Simon and Andrew abandon their nets—and even their father—and follow him. A new day had dawned.

Everyone has to change when a new day dawns: the Ninevites, the Corinthians, the apostles, even Jesus! Didn’t a new day dawn today for us as well?

This Weekend’s Second Collection is for: The Church in Latin America

The annual national Collection for the Church in Latin America (CLA) is this weekend. The 2021 campaign highlights the faith of Latin America and the many opportunities we have to share faith with them. We also recognize the tremendous benefit of having our Latin American brothers and sisters in the Church and the revitalization their fervor brings to the faith. In addition to offering our help and support to the Catholics of Latin America, we have much to learn from them.

Support the collection, and help young people grow as leaders of our Church! For more information about the Collection for the Church in Latin America, visit www.usccb.org/latin-america

JANUARY 31, 2021 — 4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20

The events in today's reading take place as the Israelites are camped on the shore of the Jordan River ready to enter the Promised Land. Moses is near death and is giving final instructions. He promises that after his death, God will still be with them through another prophet. Both Jewish and Christian readers have seen this as referring to the future Messiah.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35

In this section of the first letter to the Corinthians, Paul is responding to their question about whether it is better to remain single or become married. Paul's belief was that when you became Christian, you shouldn't take on a new state in life since he expected Jesus would return in glory very soon.

Food for Thought

The First Four

*“I will make you fishers of men.”
Abandoning their fishing nets,
they followed him.*

(Mark 1:17-18)

*With chaos in the Capitol still shocking us, a new Cabinet Team was being chosen.
That group will have a major chore:
Their leader’s plans to implement.
These words provide a parallel that’s locking us onto Mark’s Holy Gospel: Jesus posin’ discipleship to his first four,
to bring his Word to nations sent.*

*So Peter, Andrew, James and John, were all tough and strong,
soon to be joined by a group of quite wide range.
All gave up everything to follow him.
For Jesus’ ministry they set the stage.
He and his disciples began the journey long,
a drama scope of life-and-death destined to change
history’s direction from light so dim, creating for the world a bright new age.*

*This is the time of fulfillment:
The kingdom of God is at hand.*
